RH 47-2566

Information concerning the identity of the news reporter employed by the "Washington Post" as possibly being one TOM CHAPMAN, has come to the direct attention of special agents presently working in Danville through numerous contacts of various sources in Danville. In addition the description of CHAPMAN and his clothing fits with personal observations by special agents of CHAPMAN on the streets of Danville. It was learned that he returned to Washington, D. C., on July 12, 1963, after staying at the Holiday Inn Motel, Danville, where VALERIANI admittedly resides while in Danville.

For the further information of the Bureau, a mimeographed throw-away news release bearing the letterhead of the Danville Christian Progressive Association, 226 North Union Street, Danville, Virginia, under date of July 12, 1963, in commenting on the day's events, among other things, stated "NBC newsman RICHARD VALERIANI and his two aides were also taken into custody by police but later released." It is to be noted that when interviewed at Police Headquarters, VALERIANI was specifically asked if the police had charged him with any offenses and his reply was in the negative. In addition, he was specifically advised that his interview responses were entirely voluntary on his part and he was free to terminate the interview any time he so desired.

The facts in this case were originally presented to Assistant U. S. Attorney LAWRENCE C. MUSGROVE upon the receipt of the original information from Captain JUBY E. TOWLER, Detective Bureau, Danville Police Department, and at that time he declined prosecution.

However upon completion of instant investigation, matter will be re-presented to the U. S. Attorney for a current prosecutive opinion.

Title: RICHARD VALERIANI

Synopsis:

At approximately 2:00 P.M. - 2:30 P.M., 7/11/63 and 4:00 P.M. 7/12/63 RICHARD VALERIANI, NBC News, allegedly represented himself at the Danville City Jail, Danville, Va., and to Captain JUBY E. TOWLER, NA, Danville PD, Danville, Va., as being with the FBI and a Federal Officer. VALERIANI was interviewed and denied making such statements, saying that he was misunderstood. AUSA, Roanoke, Va., originally declined prosecution on statements made to TOWLER. Description of VALERIANI set forth.

DETAILS:

Date 7/17/63

Captain JUBY E. TOWLER, Danville, Virginia, Police Department, related as follows:

At approximately 4:00 P.M., July 12, 1963, while on Wood Avenue, in the vicinity of Gate 5, Dan River Mills, Danville, Virginia, engaged in investigation of racial demonstrations at the plant, he stopped a late model Cadillac automobile, being driven by one COY FRANK MC ALLISTER, and known by him to be registered to Reverend ALEXANDER I. DUNLAP. The vehicle was occupied by eight other persons besides the driver and the vehicle contained placards. Captain TOWLER's purpose in stopping the vehicle was to determine the identity of the driver of the vehicle who was not the registrant of the car, since it was loitering in the area.

While talking to MC ALLISTER outside the car on the passenger side, Captain TOWLER was approached by a Caucasian male, unknown to TOWLER. This individual said to TOWLER, as best as TOWLER could recall, "What's the matter with him?" which TOWLER construed to mean referred to his discussion with MC ALLISTER, and the unknown Caucasian male continued addressing TOWLER, as best he could recall to the effect, "I'm with the Federal Bureau" or "Bureau", or "FBI", "I'm Flannery, are you going to shoo him away?"

TOWLER said he replied "No, I'm just checking. He's driving somebody else's car. Do you want to check?"

TOWLER said that the unknown Caucasian male made some statement to him, unrecalled, or some gesture that he was not so disposed and stated to TOWLER, "I met you down there", or words to that effect.

Captain TOWLER said that he did not understand the last comment because he did not recall ever meeting this person.

Thereafter, the unknown Caucasian male departed in the direction of a vehicle parked about half a block away, occupied by two other persons, one of whom was a white male whom Captain TOWLER believed was wearing a tan baseball-type cap. Captain TOWLER described this vehicle as a black 1962 Chevrolet Sedan, bearing 1963 North Carolina license [redacted]. He stated that he did not know the identity of the registered owner of the vehicle although the car had been seen in the Danville area for several days and was known to the Virginia State Police and Danville Police Department as a suspicious car with an out-of-state license.

Captain TOWLER described the unknown white male with whom he conversed as dark skinned, in his 30's, 5'10", 160 to 170 pounds, dark hair, dark business clothes and possibly wearing a straw hat. Captain TOWLER stated that he would be able to identify this person.

Captain TOWLER stated that the unidentified Caucasian male with whom he spoke did not exhibit credentials, nor did TOWLER ask for same for the reason that he said he was more busily engaged in pursuing the identification of MC ALLISTER. It was only later, upon reflection that he thought that the matter should be brought to the attention of the FBI, since he could not recall ever having seen this person.

Date 7/17/63

RICHARD VALERIANI, 1330 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at the Danville Police Department, Danville, Virginia, and informed that he did not have to make a statement and any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law. He was informed he had a right to consult an attorney prior to the interview.

He informed that he was born August 29, 1932, Camden, New Jersey, and was employed as a news reporter for NBC. He related that he was in the vicinity of the Dan River Mills, Danville, Virginia, about 4:00 P.M. on July 12, 1963, and observed Captain JUBY TOWLER, Danville Police Department talking with some Negroes in a Cadillac automobile. He stated that he had said to TOWLER that he was VALERIANI with NBC and insisted that he did not represent himself as being with the FBI or the Federal Government in any form.

He informed that he was merely interested in whether or not TOWLER was going to "shoo" the Negroes away from the plant. He related that TOWLER had asked him if he wanted to talk with the Negroes and he said that he did not. He stated that he had met TOWLER before and told him that he had seen him before, but that TOWLER apparently did not recognize him. He was asked if he was under arrest and he stated the police department had not arrested him and he realized he was free to leave at any time.

On Thursday, July 11, 1963, at about one-half hour after the arrest of approximately six demonstrators in front of the Danville Municipal Building, sometime in the afternoon, [redacted] had occasion to walk from the entrance of the Danville Police Department in the basement of the Municipal Building, in a southerly direction, up an incline, through the alley between the Municipal Building and the Danville City Jail, east of the Municipal Building.

As [redacted] walked up the ramp, he saw two Caucasian males near the jail door. One was in front of the door, wearing a pair of dark pants, a short sleeved dress shirt and the other was approximately ten feet south of the first individual and wearing a light tan suit.

[redacted] continued walking in their direction and heard a voice from within the jail, unrecognized by [redacted] state, "Who's there". and as [redacted] passed the individual in front of the door, [redacted] heard that person state, "FBI".

[redacted] continued walking and arrived at Court Street and proceeded in a westerly direction.

[redacted] said that he was not certain that he could identify the individual standing in front of the jail door, but in a later conversation on July 12, 1963, with HAMILTON CROCKFORD, who is a news reporter for the "Richmond Times Dispatch" and a Sergeant DUNCAN of the Danville Police Department,

[redacted] learned that Captain TOWLER of the Danville Police Department was desirous of hearing what [redacted] had overheard at the jail on the previous day. [redacted] said that he did not in conscience believe that he could accurately describe the Caucasian male in the front of the Danville City Jail on July 11, 1963, who made the statement "FBI", because he had in his mind's eye and could not rid himself of the description of VALERIANI, which he had learned from Captain TOWLER and from observation of VALERIANI, whom he has seen on the streets of Danville recently. [redacted] said that he felt that such description would be adversely affected by his knowledge of VALERIANI's description and he did not desire to be less than completely truthful in the matter.

Mr. WILLIAM T. CHAPMAN, home address, [redacted] telephone number [redacted] was interviewed at his office at the Washington Post, 1515 L Street, N.W. CHAPMAN advised he had covered the racial demonstrations at Danville, Virginia, during July, 1963, as a reporter for the Washington Post. Wash. DC.
